President's Message

We have had such great participation in all of our Club activities, but I wanted to especially highlight our inspirational Zontian of the Year, as well as those who faithfully attended our Business meetings and thereby consistently participated in the very important decisions that lead to such a successful year. Congratulations to the following members, who were honored in June:

Zontian of the Year      Jane Adams

Attendance Awards

Perfect:                Jane Adams, Cyndi Bracken, Alice Chick, Cissy Kross, and Ellen Vacirca

Outstanding:        Linda Johnson, Vanessa Lovvorn, Pat Metcalf, Shelly Olkey, Christy Simmons, Nancy Thompson, and Regina Vetto

It was wonderful to see such great attendance (and camaraderie!) at all of the planning meetings (OMC-Membership, Jazz Brunch, STWS-Service and Budget) held in the past month as well. We collaborated in some outstanding plans that are sure to make it another successful year! As a Japanese proverb says, "None of us is as smart as all of us." It's our collective resources, inspiration and participation that make us great! Thank you for sharing your time and your gifts.

Cyndi

Will YOU be a contender for
Zontian of the Year or an Attendance Award*
next year?

* Remember if you miss a Business meeting, you can "make it up" by going to another Zonta Club meeting or to a meeting of our Board of Directors. Be sure to report it to Linda Johnson, our Attendance Chair.

"WELCOME TAMAR & MINAL!"

Tamar:

Tamar is the Director of Development & Community Relations for Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic, housed on the FAU campus. Tamar came to us through a referral from the former president of the Zonta Club of Coral Gables, and we are grateful that she did! We're all anxious to learn more about RCBD and how we can help make a difference. Tamar is a very serious, dedicated lady who enjoys writing, painting (hear that, Pat??), walks on the beach and her dogs: wow, sounds so serene!! As if that's not enough, Tamar also keeps track of her husband Morgan and 5 children! We welcome you, Tamar, to the fellowship of Zonta and look forward to getting to know you better~sooo, extend your hand to welcome Tamar!

Minal:

Welcome to you! If you know Mercantile Bank, then you know Minal! She is always there to welcome you as a friend! You may not know how we "found" Minal: at a Jazz Brunch meeting. Sandy Manning saw Minal's picture in a PBCC brochure & said, "I know her, she'd be great for Zonta!!!" And the rest is history: Minal has jumped in with both feet and has been very helpful with ideas and suggestions for our Jazz Brunch. Oh yes...she also has a family to take care of...husband Fred, who we met at Installation, and children Rahil and Sharan. We are honored to have you as a part of Zonta!!

Bloomingdale's Shopping Benefit

Thursday, October 25th

10 am to 10 pm

Boca Raton, Aventura, Miami, Palm Beach Gardens and Orlando

We should have our tickets available in mid-August. I will be sure to send each of you the number you want, so please contact me soon about how many tickets you'll be needing.

We also have a surprise! For the Zontian who sells the most tickets, you will receive one free dinner meeting – you pick the month! So, get out there and sell those tickets – please!

We'll also need some volunteers the day of the event to sit at the doors of the Bloomingdale's stores to sell additional tickets and explain the program. If you are available for 3 hours on October 25th, you can decide which store and what time slot – 9:30, noon, 2:30 or 5:00. We'll ask for a commitment at the September meeting, so leave some time open on your calendar.

If you have questions, contact Jan Furtado or Lisa Miller.

Service Committee ~ updates

Service Committee @ FAU – the first service committee project helped staff a table at the City of Boca Raton's 4th of July fireworks celebration at FAU. Even though the main feature of the day was RAIN, we'd like to thank Emily Lilly for providing us with the table. And, thank you to Cissy, Cyndi and Alice for helping staff the table. While we weren't able to talk to many people about Zonta, the rain provided us a fellowship opportunity to get to know each other better.

Next Service Committee

Project: visit to Zontian Ruth Der Walt on August 4 or 11. More info to follow. - Lisa
