AUGUST — 2015

President's Message

Dear Zontian Sisters,

Lots of good news this month! Deanna Duke from Boca Helping Hands did a great job of explaining the mission of BHH at our July business meeting. I want to remind everyone about this quarter's service project for BHH—please do bring in your August food donations to one of our three August meetings. The local need is great. In June we had 5 volunteers donate 4 hours each of their time preparing and serving lunch at BHH. This month, I made a donation to BHH in Zonta's name of 109 pounds of toiletries that were given to me.

Bernadette Guber presented our club a check for $100, proceeds from items she sold for us on eBay. This money helps us meet our ZIF annual donations. Thank you Bernadette!

Jan Furtado presented our 1st Zonta Moment. Her presentation reminded us of all the great projects worldwide supported by our annual ZIF donations. Speaking of Jan, she is our 2015 Soroptimist "Women of Distinction" Award nominee. Congrats Jan!

I am so pleased that Shelly and Sandra have volunteered to speak and represent our club at the West Boca Chamber of Commerce meeting and hopefully to other organizations.

SALE!! — Macy's coupons are going well with over 100 sold as of July 8th. We still have a few more weeks, so keep up the good work and be sure to get your coupons before they are gone!

We will be having another interesting speaker for the August 11th business meeting, Sharon Daugherty. Sharon works for PBC Victim Services Division. She is the Sexual Assault Response Coordinator. This will be a great meeting to invite your friends to. We will all learn more about personal safety in public places, especially on college campuses.

You wouldn't worry so much what others think of you — if you realized how seldom they do!
